Welcome to the Wilderness! Where endless adventures await you!

Here are some tips we think will help you as you explore the adventures at Wilderness Territory.

Shuttle Service – Take our on-site shuttle service to anywhere on property. Simply dial 0 from your room or any house phone.

Level 2 – When in doubt, stay on Level 2. All our lobbies, skywalks and access to all three of our indoor water parks are on Level 2.

Continental Divide – The Continental Divide Skywalk connects the New Frontier and Wild West regions of Wilderness Hotel & Golf Resort.

The New Frontier Region goes from the New Frontier Lobby, to just past Klondike Kavern, where the Continental Divide is located, the hallways in this region are highlighted sage green.

The Wild West Region of the hotel goes from the Continental Divide back to the Wild West Lobby. The hallways in this region are highlighted burgundy red.

Glacier Canyon Lodge is connected to the Wilderness Hotel & Golf Resort via the Lost Canyon Skywalk.

Indoor Waterparks:

Wild WaterDome – Is home to a see through roof for indoor tanning, the Great Wave pool, indoor cabanas and the Dueling Mammoths raft ride. True adventurers will find the walkway connection between the back of Klondike Kavern and the Wild WaterDome.

Klondike Kavern – Popular attractions include the lazy river, Bonanza Bluff and Hurricane thrill ride.

Wild West Waterpark – Favorites include the Black Hole thrill ride, Fantastic Voyage family raft ride, Ransack Ridge and Bumper Boats.

Outdoor Waterparks:

New Frontier Waterpark – Guests love this waterpark's lazy river, body and tube slides, hot spa and many play 'n spray features.

Lake Wilderness – Indulge in this park's 13,000 sq. ft. pool with lounging ridge, body and tube slides, lap pool and cabanas.

Lost World Waterpark – Located at Glacier Canyon Lodge this park is home to the Halley's Comet Racers, an adventure River, several pools and cabanas.
